

A MOVIE WITHOUT

ABSURD, OFF-THE-WALL COMEDY

A Movie Without is a series in which key scenes from movies of all genres are re-shot with the subtle difference that their outcome is completely altered by the omission of one apparently insignificant detail.

The duellists are all fingers and thumbs, the car chase takes place on a road with no bends, the romance is completely devoid of style, the porn film has no radiators, the detective movie is a no-smoking zone...

And within seconds the whole thing becomes absurd!
