

PARIS 16

SOAP OPERA

Lorène Maréchal, a young penniless orphan who is looking for her real dad, happens to arrive in the life of three rich Parisian families, the Cipriani, the Saint-Faye and the Kervadec. Those three families share an Empire: Carialis, a ship owner company, run without scruples but with success.

Determined to find her unknown father, idealistic and sincere Lorène is going to clash into the Parisian golden youth, full of appearances and pretence and where money rules. But behind the luxury clothes and the cynism of richness, Lorène is about to discover torn families, revenges and secrets, far from the apparent happiness of being rich.
